COMMENCEMENT OF BUSINESS

2. The business of the Company may be commenced as soon after incorporation of the Company as the Board shall see fit, notwithstanding that part only of the shares may have been allotted.

3. The Board may pay, out of the capital or any other monies of the Company, all expenses incurred in or about the formation and establishment of the Company including the expenses of registration.

ISSUE OF SHARES

4. Subject to the provisions in the Statute, the Company shall issue shares without printing share certificates for the Shares issued. Subject to these Articles, the provisions, if any, in the Memorandum (and to any direction that may be given by the Company in general meeting) and without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing Shares, the Board may allot, issue, grant options over or otherwise dispose of Shares with or without preferred, deferred or other rights or restrictions, whether in regard to Dividend or other distribution, voting, return of capital or otherwise and to such persons, at such times and on such other terms as they think proper, and may also (subject to the Statute and these Articles) vary such rights; provided that no Share shall be issued at a discount except in accordance with the Statute. So long as the Shares have been listed on the GTSM or on the TSE, notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles and subject always to the law of Cayman Islands, the details of the holders of Shares which are traded on the GTSM or on the TSE shall be recorded by TDCC in accordance with Applicable Public Company Rules, and the Company shall recognize as a Member each person identified as a holder of a Share in the records provided by TDCC to the Company and such records shall form part of the Register of Members.

4-1 The Company may issue Shares with rights which are preferential to those of ordinary Shares issued by the Company (“preferred Shares”) with the approval of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting attended by two-third or more of the total number of the Directors and with the approval of a Special Resolution. Prior to the issuance of any preferred Shares, these Articles shall be amended to set forth the rights and obligations of the preferred Shares, including but not limited to the following terms, and the same shall apply to any variation of rights of preferred Shares:

(a) order, fixed amount or fixed ratio of allocation of Dividends and bonus on preferred Shares;

(b) order, fixed amount or fixed ratio of allocation of residual assets of the Company on a liquidation or other return of capital by the Company;

(c) order of or restriction on the voting right(s) (including declaring no voting rights whatsoever) of preferred Shareholders;

(d) other matters concerning rights and obligations incidental to preferred Shares; and

(e) the procedure and method by which the Company is authorized or compelled to redeem the preferred Shares, or a statement that redemption rights shall not apply.

5. Unless otherwise provided for in these Articles, the issue of new shares of the Company shall be approved by a majority of the Directors at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the total number of the Directors. The issue of new shares shall at all time be subject to the sufficiency of the authorized share capital of the Company.

6. Where the Company increases its issued share capital by issuing new shares for cash consideration in the ROC, the Company shall allocate 10% of the total amount of the new shares to be issued, for offering in the ROC to the public unless it is not necessary or appropriate, as determined by the FSC, TSE or GTSM, for the Company to conduct the aforementioned public offering. However, if a percentage higher than the aforementioned 10% is resolved by a general meeting to be offered, the percentage determined by such resolution shall prevail. The Company may also reserve up to 15% of such newly issued shares for subscription by employees of the Company and/or of the Company's Subsidiary(ies). For the avoidance of doubt, this Article 6 does not apply to issuance of Shares resulting from or in connection with any merger, consolidation, spin-off, amalgamation, asset acquisition, reorganization, share swap, share subdivision, stock exchange, conversion of convertible securities, debt instruments or preferred Shares, other issuance of shares for consideration other than cash, issuance of Shares upon exercise of share options, warrants, awards or other rights, or issuance of Restricted Shares ("Excluded Issuance").

7. Unless otherwise resolved by the Members at a general meeting by Ordinary Resolution, where the Company increases its issued share capital by issuing new Shares for cash consideration, the Company shall make a public announcement and notify each Member that he/she/it is entitled to exercise a pre-emptive right to purchase his/her/its pro rata portion of the remaining new Shares (after allocation of the public offering portion and the employee subscription portion pursuant to Article 6) issued in the capital increase for cash consideration. The Company shall state in such announcement and notices to the Members that if any Member fails to subscribe for his/her/its pro rata portion of such remaining newly-issued Shares within the prescribed period, such Member shall be deemed to forfeit his/her/its pre-emptive right to subscribe for such newly-issued Shares. In the event that the number of Shares held by a Member is insufficient for such Member to exercise the pre-emptive right to subscribe for one newly-issued Share, Shares held by several Members may be calculated together for joint subscription of newly-issued Shares or for subscription of newly-issued Shares in the name of a single Member pursuant to the Applicable Public Company Rules. If the total number of the new Shares to be issued has not been fully subscribed for by the Members within the prescribed period, the Company may consolidate such Shares into the public offering tranche or offer any un-subscribed new Shares to a specific person or persons according to the Applicable Public Company Rules. The foregoing Members' pre-emptive right shall not apply to an Excluded Issuance.

8. The Company shall not issue any nil-paid Shares or partly paid-up shares.

9. The Company may, upon approval by majority of the Directors at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of all the Directors, adopt one or more incentive programmes and may issue Shares or options, warrants or other similar instruments, to employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries. Any such employee who also acts as Director of the Company may participate in the incentive programmes in his/her capacity as an employee and not as a director of the Company.

The maximum aggregate number of the Shares that may be subject to subscription pursuant to any such incentive programme shall be 15% of then registered issued Shares.

10. Options, warrants or other similar instruments issued in accordance with Article 9 above are not transferable except for inheritance.

10-1. To the extent permitted under and subject to the Applicable Public Company Rules and the Statute, the Company may, with the approval of a Supermajority Resolution, issue new Shares with restricted rights ("Restricted Shares") solely to employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries and Article 6 and 7 shall not apply to such issue of Shares. The terms of issue of Restricted Shares, including but not limited to the number, issue price, issue conditions and other related matters, shall comply with the Applicable Public Company Rules. The Company may repurchase the Restricted Shares issued to the relevant employees pursuant to Article 120-3 hereof if the vesting conditions set forth in the plan of Restricted Shares are not met.

11. The Company may enter into agreements with employees of the Company and the employees of its Subsidiaries in relation to the incentive programme approved pursuant to Article 9 above, whereby employees may subscribe, within a specific period, a specific number of the Shares at an agreed subscription price. The terms and conditions of such agreements shall be no less restrictive on relevant employee than the terms specified in the applicable incentive programme.

12. The Company shall not issue Shares in bearer form. The Company shall not issue Shares without nominal or par value.

13. The Company shall maintain or cause to be maintained the Register of Members.

VARIATION OF RIGHTS OF SHARES

14. Except as otherwise provided for herein, if at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound-up, be varied with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class. Notwithstanding the forgoing, if any modification or alteration in these Articles is prejudicial to the preferential rights of any class of Shares, in addition to the Special Resolution, such modification or alternation shall also be approved by a Special Resolution passed in a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

15. The provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall apply to every such general meeting of the holders of one class of shares except that the necessary quorum shall be one person holding or representing by proxy at least a majority of the issued shares of the class.

16. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking in priority to or pari passu therewith.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

17. The instrument of transfer of any shares, if required, shall be in writing and shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of a share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.

18. The transfer of Share may be conducted via the following methods.

(a) Subject to these Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules, any Member may transfer all or any of his/her/its Shares by an instrument of transfer. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of a Share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members.

(b) Notwithstanding Article 18(a) above, the Board may, subject to the applicable laws of the Cayman Islands and if so permitted, allow shares of any class in the Company to be transferred without an instrument of transfer by means of a relevant system, including that of the TDCC or any method of transferring or dealing in securities introduced by GTSM or TSE. The Company shall, by notice, require the holder of Shares to give instructions, or appoint a person to give instructions, necessary to transfer title to that Share by means of the relevant system pursuant to the applicable regulations, the facilities and the requirements of the relevant system; provided that such instructions shall be subject always to these Articles and the laws of the Cayman Islands and the Applicable Public Company Rules.

NONRECOGNITION OF TRUSTS

19. No person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof), any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as is otherwise provided by these Articles or the Statute) any other rights in respect of any share, except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

REGISTRATION OF EMPOWERING INSTRUMENTS

20. The Company shall be entitled to charge a reasonable fee on the registration of every probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney or other instrument.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

21. In case of the death of a Member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and legal personal representatives of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of any such deceased holder from any liability in respect of any shares which had been held by him solely or jointly with other persons.

22. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy or liquidation or dissolution of a Member (or in any other way than by transfer) may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to make such transfer of the share to such other person nominated by him as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made and to have such person registered as the transferee thereof, but the Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that Member before his death or bankruptcy as the case may be. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself as holder, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.

23. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy or liquidation or dissolution of the holder (or in any other case than by transfer) shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a Member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the Board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and, if the notice is not complied with within ninety (90) days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

59. The instrument of proxy shall be deposited at the Registered Office or the office of the Company's stock affairs agent in the ROC or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company no less than five (5) days before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote. Where more than one instrument to vote are received from the same Member by the Company, the first instrument received shall prevail, unless an explicit written statement is made by the relevant Member to revoke the previous proxy in the later-received instrument.

DISSENTING MEMBER'S APPRAISAL RIGHT

63. In the event any of the following resolutions is adopted at a general meeting, any Member who has notified the Company in writing of his/her/its dissent to such a resolution prior to the meeting and has raised again his/her/its dissent at the meeting, is entitled to exercise his/her/its appraisal rights in accordance with these Articles:

64. Upon the occurrence of an event described in Articles 63 above, the dissenting Member shall give a written notice to request the Company to acquire or purchase his/her/its shares no later than twenty (20) days after the date on which the resolution was passed at the then prevailing fair market price determined by the Board in good faith, and shall state in such request the class and number of shares that such Member requests the Company to repurchase.

65. If agreement on the price of the shares can be reached between the dissenting Member and the Company, the Company shall, subject to compliance with these Articles and the Applicable Law, repurchase and pay for the shares within ninety (90) days from the date on which the resolution was passed. If no agreement is reached within sixty (60) days from the date on which the resolution was passed, the dissenting Member may, within 30 days after the last day of the above 60-day period, apply to a competent court for a ruling on the price.

66. The payment of repurchase price to the Members shall be made at the same time against the delivery of a declaration and an instrument of transfer in respect of the shares subject to the repurchase duly executed by such Member to the Company, and the date of repurchase of such shares shall be the date on which the payment is made and the Register of Members of the Company shall be updated accordingly.

67. The request of a Member pursuant to Articles 63 and 64 shall become ineffective if the Company announces that the Company will no longer proceed with the matters referred to in the relevant resolutions irrespective of whether a Member may have exercised its appraisal right under Articles 63 and 64 or where the Company is prohibited under Applicable Law to repurchase the relevant shares. Where a Member fails to make a request within the period prescribed in Articles 64 and 65 above, such Member is deemed to have duly waived its appraisal rights under Articles 63 and 64.

82. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Articles, a Director who has a personal interest in the manner under discussion at a meeting of the Board, which may impair the interest of the Company, shall not vote nor exercise voting rights on behalf of another Director; the voting right of such Director who cannot vote or exercise any voting or exercise any voting right as prescribed above shall not be counted in the number of votes of Directors present at the meeting of the Board for the purpose of that resolution.

A Director who expects to be unable to attend Directors' meetings because of absence, illness or otherwise may appoint any person to be an alternate Director to act in his stead and such appointee whilst he holds office as an alternate Director shall, in the event of absence therefrom of his appointor, be entitled to attend meetings of the Directors and to vote thereat and to do, in the place and stead of his appointor, any other act or thing which his appointor is permitted or required to do by virtue of his being a Director as if the alternate Director were the appointor, other than appointment of an alternate to himself, and he shall ipso facto vacate office if and when his appointor ceases to be a Director or removes the appointee from office. Any appointment or removal under this Article shall be effected by notice in writing under the hand of the Director making the same.

85. Subject to Article 84 above, the Directors may from time to time and at any time by powers of attorney appoint any company, firm, person or body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors, to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purpose and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, and any such powers of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorneys as the Directors may think fit and may also authorize any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

90. Except as otherwise provided by these Articles, the Directors shall meet together for the dispatch of business, convening, adjourning and otherwise regulating their meetings as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided, resolutions put to the vote at meeting of the Board shall be adopted and other action shall be taken only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors and alternate Directors present at a meeting at which the Quorum of the Board Meeting is present and no resolution shall be passed in the case of an equality of votes. The chairman of the meeting does not have a second vote or casting vote. A Director who is also an alternate Director shall be entitled in the absence of his appointor to a separate vote on behalf of his appointor in addition to his own vote.

The vote of an alternate Director shall not be counted if his appointor is present at such meeting.

91. The Chairman may, and the Secretary on the requisition of the Chairman shall, at any time summon a meeting of the Board. Notice of a meeting of the Board shall be deemed to be duly given to a Director if it is given to such Director verbally (in person or by telephone) or otherwise communicated or sent to such Director by post, cable, telex, telecopier, facsimile, electronic mail or other mode of representing words in a legible form at such Director's last known address or any other address given by such Director to the Company for this purpose. At least seven (7) days' prior notice shall be given for any meeting of the Board of the Directors provided that the Board of Directors may meet at any time in case of any urgent circumstances where the majority of the Directors agree to waive notice of such meeting either at, before, or after the meeting is held. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made part of the minutes of the meeting. A waiver of notice need not specify the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board, of Directors.

92. A meeting at which a Quorum of the Board Meeting is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the vote of the Directors and alternate Directors present at a meeting at which the Quorum of the Board Meeting is present.

93. For the purposes of Article 90 an alternate Director or proxy appointed by a Director shall be counted in the Quorum of the Board Meeting at a meeting at which the Director appointing him is not present. A Director who also acts as an alternate Director shall, if his appointor is not present, count twice towards the Quorum of the Board Meeting.

94. The continuing Directors (or a sole continuing Director, as the case may be) may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to the Articles, the continuing Directors or Director may act for the purpose of summoning a general meeting of the Company pursuant to Articles 103 and 104 below to appoint additional Directors so that the number of Directors will be equal to such fixed number, but for no other purpose.

95. The Directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of the Board of Directors (including alternate Directors in the absence of their appointors) as they think fit; any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Directors.

96. A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Except for otherwise provided in the Applicable Laws, questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by the affirmative vote of the majority of the committee members present.

97. All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors (including any person acting as an alternate Director) shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any Director or alternate Director, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and qualified to be a Director or alternate Director as the case may be.

98. Members of the Board or of any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board or of such committee by means of video conference or similar communications facilities by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can see and communicate with each other at the same time and participation in a meeting pursuant to this manner shall be treated as presence in person at such meeting.

99. A Director but not an alternate Director may be represented at any meetings of the Board or committee of the Board by a proxy appointed in writing by him/her. A Director appointing another Director to attend a Board meeting as his or her proxy shall issue a proxy, valid only for the particular appointment, listing the powers and authorities in relation to the reasons for convening the meeting granted to the proxy agent. The proxy shall count towards the Quorum of the Board Meeting and the vote of the proxy shall for all purposes be deemed to be that of the appointing Director.

100. The rules and procedures of the meeting of the Board shall be established by the Board in accordance with these Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules. Subject to the foregoing, the Directors may regulate their proceeding as they see fit.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

101. The Company may at a general meeting elect any person to be a Director, which vote shall be calculated in accordance with Article 102 below. Members present in person or by proxy, representing more than one-half of the total outstanding Shares shall constitute a quorum for any general meeting to elect one or more Directors.

102. Directors shall be elected pursuant to Cumulative Voting pursuant to a poll vote, where the number of votes exercisable by any Member shall be the same as the product of the number of Shares held by such Member and the number of Directors to be elected (“Special Ballot Votes”), and the total number of Special Ballot Votes cast by any Member may be consolidated for election of one Director candidate or may be split for election amongst multiple Director candidates, as specified by the Member pursuant to the poll vote ballot. The top candidates in the number equal to the number of the Directors to be elected, to whom the votes cast represent a prevailing number of votes relative to the other candidates, shall be deemed Directors elected. For so long as the Shares are listed on the GTSM or the TSE, as applicable, (a) the Company may adopt a candidate nomination mechanism for the election of the Directors which is in compliance with the Applicable Public Company Rules. The rules and procedures for such candidate nomination shall be in accordance with policies established by the Board and by an Ordinary Resolution from time to time, which policies shall be in accordance with the Statute, the Memorandum, the Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules; (b) subject to the requirement of the competent securities authority in the ROC, such candidate nomination mechanism in compliance with the Applicable Public Company Rules shall also be used for the election of Independent Directors.

103. If the number of Directors is less than five (5) persons due to the vacancy of Director(s) for any reason, the Company shall hold an election of Director(s) at the next following general meeting. When the number of vacancies of Directors fall short by one third (1/3) of the total number of Directors prescribed by these Articles, an extraordinary general meeting of Members shall be convened within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of that fact to hold a by-election of directors.

104. If the number of Independent Directors is less than three (3) persons due to the resignation or removal of any of the Independent Director(s) for any reason, the Company shall hold an election of Independent Directors at the next following general meeting. If all of the Independent Directors have resigned or are removed, the Company shall hold, within sixty (60) days from the occurrence of such resignations or removals of the last Independent Directors, an extraordinary general meeting to elect Independent Directors to fill the vacancies.

RESIGNATION, REMOVAL AND DISQUALIFICATION

105. Any Director may resign effective on giving written notice to the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for that resignation to become effective.

106. The Company may from time to time by Supermajority Resolution remove any Director from office, whether or not appointing another person to fill in the vacancy; provided that the Company may remove all Directors and elect new Directors to fill the vacancies at the same time in accordance with this Article and Article 102 and unless the resolution approving such removal and election provides otherwise, the existing Directors' office shall be automatically discharged upon the passing of such resolution prior to the expiration of such Directors' applicable period of office.

107. The office of a Director shall be vacated if the Director:

(a) is removed from office pursuant to these Articles;

(b) gives notice in writing to the Company that he resigns the office of Director;

(c) dies, becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally;

(d) an order is made by any competent court or official on the grounds that he is or will be suffering from mental disorder or is otherwise incapable of managing his affairs, or his legal capacity is restricted according to the Applicable Laws;

(e) having committed an offence as specified in the ROC statute of prevention of organizational crimes and subsequently adjudicated guilty by a final judgment, and the time elapsed after he has served the full term of such sentence is less than five (5) years;

(f) having committed an offence involving fraud, breach of trust or misappropriation and subsequently sentenced to imprisonment of a term of more than one (1) year, and the time elapsed after he has served the full term of such sentence is less than two (2) years;

(g) having been adjudicated guilty by a final judgment for misappropriating public funds during the time of his public service, and the time elapsed after he has served the full term of such sentence is less than two (2) years; or

(h) having been dishonored for use of negotiable instruments, and the term of such sanction has not yet expired.

In the event that any of the foregoing events described in clauses (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) has occurred to a candidate for Directorship, such person shall be disqualified from being elected as a Director.

108. In case a Director has, in the course of performing his/her duties, committed any act resulting in material damages to the Company or in serious violation of applicable laws and regulations and/or these Articles, but not removed by a Supermajority Resolution of a general meeting, the Member(s) holding three (3) percentage or more of the total number of outstanding shares of the Company may, within thirty (30) days after that general meeting, to the extent permissible under Applicable Law, petition any competent court, which for these purposes and to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, shall include the Taipei District Court, for the removal of such Director and such Director shall be removed upon the final judgment by such court. For clarification, if a relevant court has competent jurisdiction to adjudicate all of the foregoing matters in a single or a series of proceedings, then, for the purpose of this Article, final judgment shall be given by such competent court.

108-1. Without limiting the availability of applicable remedies under Cayman Islands law, and only to the extent ROC law permits, in case a Director has, in the course of performing his/her duties, committed any act resulting in material damages to the Company or in serious violation of Applicable Laws and regulations and/or Articles, the Member(s) who has been individually, or have been collectively, continuously holding 3% or more of the total number of the issued shares of the Company over one year may, in his/her/its name, launch a litigation against such Director and the Taipei District Court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction on such litigation.

108-2. For so long as the Shares are listed on the GTSM or the TSE, subject to the Applicable Public Company Rules (and the interpretation thereof), any Director who, during his/her term and in one or more transactions, accumulatively transfers more than fifty percent (50%) of the total Shares held by such Director at the time he/she is elected at a general meeting (the "Election Time"), shall be discharged or vacated from the office of Director automatically and no shareholders' approval shall be required. For so long as the Shares are listed on the GTSM or the TSE, subject to the Applicable Public Company Rules (and the interpretation thereof), if any person transfers, in one or more transactions, more than fifty percent (50%) of the Shares held by him/her at the Election Time either (i) during the period from the Election Time to the commencement date of his/her office as Director, or (ii) during the period when the Register of Member is closed for transfer of Shares prior to the general meeting at which such person is elected as a Director, his/her appointment or election as Director shall be null and void. For the purpose of calculation of the aggregate number of Shares transferred by the Director, any transfer of Shares by the Director prior to the adoption of this Article 108-2 shall be counted in. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Article 108-2 shall not apply retroactively and thus the Director who has transferred more than fifty percent (50%) of the total Shares held by such Director at the Election Time prior to the adoption of this Article 108-2 shall not be discharged or vacated from the office upon the adoption of this Article 108-2 and for the avoidance of doubt, any transfer of Shares by such Director after the adoption of this Article 108-2 shall be subject to this Article 108-2 and shall be aggregated with the Shares transferred prior to the adoption of this Article 108-2.

TENDER OFFER

109. Within seven (7) days after the receipt of the copy of a tender offer application form and relevant documents by the Company or its litigation or non litigation agent appointed pursuant to the Applicable Public Company Rules, the Board shall resolve to recommend to the Member whether to accept or object the tender offer and make a public announcement of the following:

(a) the types and number of the Shares held by the Directors and the Members holding more than 10% of the outstanding Shares in their own names or in the names of other persons,

(b) recommendations to the Members on the tender offer, which shall set forth the names of the Directors who abstain or object to the tender offer and the reason(s) therefore,

(c) whether there is any material change in the financial condition of the Company after the submission of the latest financial report and an explanation of the change, if any; and

(d) the types, numbers and amount of the Shares of the tender offeror or its affiliates held by the Directors and the Members holding more than 10% of the outstanding Shares in their own names or in the name of other persons.

SEAL

110. The Company may, if the Board so determine, have a Seal. The Seal shall only be used by the authority of the Board or of a committee of the Directors authorized by the Board in that behalf and every instrument to which the Seal has been affixed shall be signed by one person who shall be either a Director or the Secretary or secretary-treasurer or some person appointed by the Directors for the purpose:

PROVIDED THAT the Company may have for use in any place or places outside the Cayman Islands, a duplicate seal or seals each of which shall be a facsimile of the Common Seal of the Company and, if the Board so determine, with the addition on its face of the name of every place where it is to be used; and

PROVIDED FURTHER THAT a Director, Secretary or other officer or representative or attorney of the Company may without further authority of the Directors affix the Seal of the Company over his signature alone to any document of the Company required to be authenticated by him under Seal or to be filed with the Registrar of Companies in the Cayman Islands or elsewhere wheresoever.

OFFICERS

111. The Company may have a President, a Secretary or Secretary-Treasurer appointed by the Board who may also from time to time appoint such other officers as they consider necessary, all for such terms, at such remuneration and to perform such duties, and subject to such provisions as to disqualification and removal as the Directors from time to time prescribe. The officers, in the course of performing their duties to the Company, shall assume responsibilities identical to that of the Directors.

LITIGATION AND NON LITIGATION AGENT

111-1. So long as the Shares are listed on the GTSM, the Company shall, by a resolution of the Directors, appoint or remove a litigation and non-litigation agent pursuant to the Applicable Public Company Rules to act as the Company's responsible person in the ROC to handle matters stipulated in the ROC Securities and Exchange Act and the relevant rules and regulations thereto.

DIVIDENDS

112. All dividends declared shall be declared payable to the holders thereof registered as such on the record date specified by the Directors at the time such dividends are declared.

113. Unless otherwise provided in the Applicable Public Company Rules, where the Company makes profits before tax for the annual financial year, the Company shall appropriate (i) no less than [5%] of such annual profits before tax as employee bonus (the "Employee Bonus"), which shall be distributed in accordance with the incentive programme approved pursuant to Article 9 and may be distributed to employees of the Company and/or the employees of its Subsidiaries and (ii) a maximum of 2% additional Directors' remunerations. Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, if the Company has accumulated losses of the previous years, the Company shall set aside the amount of such accumulated losses prior to the allocation of the Employee Bonus and the above additional Directors' remunerations. Subject always to the laws of Cayman Islands, the Employee Bonus may be distributed in the form of cash and/or shares, upon resolution by a majority votes at a meeting of the Board of Directors attended by two-thirds (2/3) or more of the Directors. For the avoidance of doubt, for the purpose of calculation of the above Employee Bonus and the additional Directors' remunerations, such "annual profits before tax" shall be without giving effect of the deduction and distribution of such Employee Bonus and the additional Directors' remunerations. The resolutions of Board of Directors regarding the distribution of the Employee Bonus in the preceding sentence shall be reported to the Members at the general meeting after such Board resolutions are passed. Subject to the Statute and this Article and except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to any Shares, the Company may declare dividends following the Board's recommendation in a distribution plan approved by the Board, with the sanction of Supermajority Resolution in the case of Article 24(e)(i), resolve to pay Dividends and other distributions on Shares in issue and authorise payment of the Dividends or other distributions out of the funds of the Company lawfully available therefor. The Board shall provide the distribution plan according to the following requirements: If there are profits after the final settlement of account of a year (the "Annual Profits"), the Company (i) after its losses have been offset and at the time of allocating surplus profits, may first set aside 10% of the Annual Profits as statutory reserve until the statutory reserve amounts to the authorized capital, and (ii) may appropriate a portion of the Annual Profits as special reserve required by Applicable Public Company Rules or government authorities. Thereafter, having considered the financial, business and operational factors, the Board may propose and specify no less than 10% of any remaining of Annual Profits after the above (i) to (ii) plus, at the Board's sole discretion, a certain percent of accumulated retained earnings to be distributed as dividends by cash or by applying such sum in paying up in full unissued Shares for allotment and distribution credited as fully paid-up pro rata to the Members or any combination of both, or bonuses according to the Statute and Applicable Public Company Rules, among them, cash dividend shall not less than 10% of the total Dividend declared.

114. The Directors may, before resolving to pay any dividends, or distributions set aside such sums as they think proper as a reserve or reserves which shall at the discretion of the Directors, be applicable for any purpose of the Company and pending such application may, at the like discretion, be employed in the business of the Company.

115. No dividend or distribution shall be payable except out of the profits of the Company, realized or unrealized or out of the share premium account or as otherwise permitted by the Statute.

116. The Directors may deduct from any dividend or distribution payable to any Member all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company for any reason.

117. The Directors may declare that any dividend or distribution be paid wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of any other company or in any one or more of such ways and where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all Members and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Directors.

118. Any dividend, interest or other monies payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by check or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the holder who is first named on the register of Members or to such person and to such address as such holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Every such check or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent. Any one of two or more joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends, bonuses, or other monies payable in respect of the share held by them as joint holders.

119. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.

REPURCHASE

120. Subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Company may purchase its own Shares (including any redeemable Shares).

In such manner as is referred to in Section 37(3)(d) of the Statute or any modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force, this Article authorises the purchase by the Company in accordance with the provisions of the Statute of such of its own Shares (including any redeemable Shares) as the Directors may from time to time determine and agree with the holder or holders of such Shares, in such manner and on such terms as the Directors may from time to time determine and agree, provided that the price at which such purchase is transacted must be equal to the lower of: (i) the original purchase price paid for the shares; or (ii) the fair market value of the shares at the time of the repurchase by the Company, as determined in good faith by the Directors.

The Company may make a payment in respect of the redemption or purchase of its own Shares in any manner permitted by the Statute, including out of capital.

120-1. Subject to the provisions of the Statute, these Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules, the Company may, upon approval by a majority of the Directors at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the total number of the Directors, purchase its own Shares (including any redeemable Shares). In the event that the Company proposes to purchase any Share listed on the GTSM pursuant to this Article, the approval of the Board and the implementation thereof should be reported to the Members at the next general meeting in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules. Such reporting obligation shall apply even if the Company does not implement the proposal to purchase its Shares listed on the GTSM for any reason.

120-2 The Directors may, prior to the purchase or redemption of any Share under Article 120-1, determine that such Shares shall be held as Treasury Shares. Subject to the provision of the Statute and these Articles, the Directors may determine to cancel a Treasury Share or transfer a Treasury Share to the employees on such terms as they think proper (including, without limitation, for nil consideration).

120-3 Any proposal to transfer Treasury Shares to any employee of the Company and its Subsidiaries by the Company at a price below the average repurchase price paid by the Company shall be approved by a resolution passed by two-thirds or more of the Members present at the general meeting who represent a majority of the total outstanding Shares at the most recent general meeting. The notice of the general meeting shall specify the following matters, which may not be made by an ad hoc motion:

(a) the basis and reasonableness of the determined transfer price, discount ratio and calculation;

(b) the number, purpose and reasonableness of the share transfer;

(c) conditions for and volume of share to be purchased by relevant employees; and

(d) any effect on the shareholders' rights, including:

(i) the amount which may be recorded as expenses and any dilution on earnings per Share; and

(ii) any financial burden on the Company caused by such transfer of Treasury Shares to relevant employees at a price lower than the average repurchase price paid by the Company.

The aggregate number of Treasury Shares that may be transferred to relevant employees as approved by the Members at various general meetings shall not exceed five (5) percent of the total outstanding Shares, and the aggregate number of Treasury Shares that may be purchased by each employee shall not exceed 0.5 percent of the total outstanding Shares. The Company may impose restrictions on the transfer of such Shares by the employees for a period of no more than two (2) years.

120-4. The Company may repurchase the Restricted Shares issued to the employees if the vesting conditions are not met pursuant to the plan of Restricted Shares.

121. Subject to the Statute, the Board may, with the authority of a Supermajority Resolution, at any time capitalize any sum standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts (including statutory reserve, Capital Reserve, and capital redemption reserve fund) or any sum standing to the credit or profit and loan amount or otherwise available for distribution and to appropriate such sum to Members in the proportions in which such sum would have been divisible amongst them had the same been a distribution of profits by way of dividend and to apply such sum on their behalf in paying up in full unissued shares (not being redeemable shares) for allotment and distribution credited as fully paid up to and amongst them in the proportion aforesaid. In such event the Directors shall do all acts and things required to give effect to such capitalization, with full power to the Directors to make such provisions as they think fit for the case of shares becoming distributable in fractions (including provisions whereby the benefit of fractional entitlements accrue to the Company rather than to the Members concerned). The Directors may authorize any person to enter on behalf of all of the Members interested into an agreement with the Company providing for such capitalization and matters incidental thereto and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members and the Company.

If the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution amongst the Members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid-up capital, such assets shall be distributed so that, as nearly as may be, the losses shall be borne by the Members in proportion to the capital paid up, or which ought to have been paid up, at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. And if in a winding up the assets available for distribution amongst the Members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the excess shall be distributed amongst the Members in proportion to the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. This Article is to be without prejudice to the rights of the holders of shares issued upon special terms and conditions.

131. If the Company shall be wound up the liquidator may, subject to the rights attached to any Shares and with the sanction of a Special Resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Statute, divide amongst the Members in proportion to the number of the Shares held by them in kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether such assets shall consist of property of the same kind or not) and may for that purpose value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the Members or different classes of Members. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the Members as the liquidator, with the like sanction, shall think fit, but so that no Member shall be compelled to accept any asset upon which there is a liability.

The Company is allowed to enter into indemnification contract or contract of similar nature with the aforementioned Indemnified Person and to purchase and to maintain insurance for the benefit of such Indemnified Person against any liability which, by virtue of any rule of law, would otherwise attach to such Indemnified Person in respect to of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which such Indemnified Person may be guilty in relation to the Company. Notwithstanding anything provided herein, no such Indemnified Person shall be answerable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other Indemnified Person or for joining in any receipt for the sake of conformity or for the solvency or honesty of any banker or other persons with whom any monies or effects belonging to the Company may be lodged or deposited for safe custody or for any insufficiency of any security upon which any monies of the Company may be invested or for any other loss or damage due to any such cause as aforesaid or which may happen in or about the execution of his office except the same shall happen through the willful default or actual fraud of such Indemnified Person.

Parade Technologies, Ltd.
2015 Business Report

Dear Shareholders,

Year 2015 was a substantial growth year for Parade. We achieved record revenue of US$225.93 million, or NT$7.2 billion in 2015, which represented an increase of 10.00% year-over-year growth as compared to 2014. Leveraging our leading technology and superior product design capability, combined with our close collaboration with Tier-1 OEM customers and chip set vendors, Parade has successfully sustained our leadership position in the markets we serve.

During the past year, Parade made a significant strategic investment by acquiring the TrueTouch® Mobile touchscreen business from Cypress Semiconductor. This strategic acquisition enables Parade to market TrueTouch solutions to our customers. More importantly, the acquisition will allow Parade to integrate the touch screen controller technology with company's proprietary display driver technology to offer unique and highly integrated solutions to the rapidly growing smartphone, tablet, and notebook markets.

Along with the TrueTouch design team and sales and marketing infrastructure, the acquisition brought more than 150 patents, including pending applications, into the Parade IP portfolio, and secured IP licenses for additional 150 patents. Parade's newly expanded IP portfolio will drive the development of innovative integrated devices that will reduce unit cost and simplify design cycles, time-to-market, and supply chain management for customers in the mobile display market. The company estimates that Parade's total serviceable market reaches $5.5 billion as a result of this strategic acquisition.

In 2015, Parade continues to strengthen the leading positions in high-speed market segment. The USB Type-C Connector with DP Alt Mode—first introduced in 2014—achieved broad market acceptance in 2015. The company continued to position itself for growth through aggressive new product introductions. Parade expanded its portfolio of devices addressing high-speed market in 2015 with the introduction of data switches (PS8740), redrivers (PS8742), and integrated switch-redriver-power controllers (PS 8750 & PS 8751) for the ‘USB Type-C’ market.

Parade leveraged its market leading position and extensive industry knowledge in embedded DisplayPort area to introduce two TCON devices (DP691 and DP693) for eDP version 1.4b, the latest update to the eDP standard. Working closely with Tier-1 OEM customers, Parade also developed customized eDP solutions to solve unique technical challenges faced by leading global brands for advanced display solutions, such as AMOLED displays. Parade continues to commit resources to support the development of DisplayPort standards through the company’s participation in VESA (Video Electronics Standards Association), with Parade personnel serving as key contributors on VESA technical committees.

Parade’s LCD driver based on Scalable Intra Panel Interface (SIPI) for use within LCD display panels—first introduced in 2014—achieved mass-market production in 2015. In addition, SIPI driver technologies and products continue winning the adoptions in the marketplace where LCD display panels demand high-speed bandwidth. For the high-speed converter area, Parade introduced new DP-to-HDMI 2.0a video protocol converters (PS175 & PS176). Finally, exploiting its acquisition of TrueTouch, Parade announced two touch screen controller families in 2015, one targeted at tablet applications (TT41X), and one targeted at smartphones (TT42X).

Parade’s consolidated net income in 2015, including the acquisition related expense of Cypress’ TrueTouch business was US$36.03 million (NT$1.14 billion), a decrease of 10.95% from US$40.47 million (NT$1.23 billion) in year 2014. Earnings per diluted share in 2015 were US$0.47 (NT$15.00), a decrease of 11.32% from US$0.53 (NT$16.15) in 2014. Gross profit margin was 40.35% as compared to 41.28% in 2014, while operating profit margin was 16.87% down from 21.25% of the prior year.

Parade believes our employees and intellectual property are the most important assets of the company. We are committed to recruiting and investing in the highest quality research & development (R&D) staff, in order to expand our technology capabilities and portfolios. As of December 31, 2015, Parade has a total of 393 employees, up 100 from 2014. Out of 393 employees, 245 were engaged in research, development and related engineering. We hold 112 granted patents and 146 patent applications pending by year-end of 2015.

Looking forward, we believe we will continue to benefit from the increasing demand for bandwidth to support innovative displays, higher speed data transmission, and lower power consumption. Our newly expanded IP portfolio enables Parade to expand our strategic focus to combine touch screen and display technologies, satisfying the increasing consumer and industrial market demand for advanced integrated solutions. With our leading position in eDP TCON technologies and broad adoption by global tier-1 customers, we believe Parade is well positioned to generate outstanding results for our shareholders.

We appreciate the solid support from all of our shareholders!

1. The eligible employees are limited to the employees of the Company or of the subsidiary wholly owned by the Company who serve as the full-time employees before the restricted stocks awards for the employee (the "RSA") are granted. 2. The chairman shall propose and submit the list of grantee employees and the number of RSAs to be granted to the board of directors of the Company for the approval, in the case of granting the RSA to an employee who serves as directors and/or officers, to the compensation committee of the Company for review and recommendation and then to the board of directors of the Company for final approval. The actual employees and the number of RSA to be granted will be decided according to relevant laws and regulations and within the limitation of amount thereof, considering seniority, job level, work performance, overall contribution, special achievement, and other factors necessary for management, etc., and considering the Company's operational needs and development strategy.
3. For each employee, the total number of RSAs granted to plus the total number of shares issued and issuable upon exercise by such employee of the Special Employee Stock Option of which the term has yet been expired shall not exceed 0.3% of the total issued and outstanding shares of the Company; and the sum of the number of RSAs granted to plus the total number of shares issued and issuable upon exercise by such employee of all employee stock option of which the term has yet been expired shall not exceed 1% of the total issued and outstanding shares of the Company. For purpose of this Plan, the Special Employee Stock Option shall mean the employee stock option of which the exercise price is lower than the market price.

ISSUE OF SHARES

4. Subject to the provisions in the Statute, the Company shall issue shares without printing share certificates for the Shares issued. Subject to these Articles, the provisions, if any, in the Memorandum (and to any direction that may be given by the Company in general meeting) and without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing Shares, the Board may allot, issue, grant options over or otherwise dispose of Shares with or without preferred, deferred or other rights or restrictions, whether in regard to Dividend or other distribution, voting, return of capital or otherwise and to such persons, at such times and on such other terms as they think proper, and may also (subject to the Statute and these Articles) vary such rights; provided that no Share shall be issued at a discount except in accordance with the Statute. So long as the Shares have been listed on the GTSM or on the TSE, notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles and subject always to the law of Cayman Islands, the details of the holders of Shares which are traded on the GTSM or on the TSE shall be recorded by TDCC in accordance with Applicable Public Company Rules, and the Company shall recognize as a Member each person identified as a holder of a Share in the records provided by TDCC to the Company and such records shall form part of the Register of Members.

4-1 The Company may issue Shares with rights which are preferential to those of ordinary Shares issued by the Company (“preferred Shares”) with the approval of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting attended by two-third or more of the total number of the Directors and with the approval of a Special Resolution. Prior to the issuance of any preferred Shares, these Articles shall be amended to set forth the rights and obligations of the preferred Shares, including but not limited to the following terms, and the same shall apply to any variation of rights of preferred Shares:

(f) order, fixed amount or fixed ratio of allocation of Dividends and bonus on preferred Shares;

(j) the procedure and method by which the Company is authorized or compelled to redeem the preferred Shares, or a statement that redemption rights shall not apply.

5. Unless otherwise provided for in these Articles, the issue of new shares of the Company shall be approved by a majority of the Directors at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the total number of the Directors. The issue of new shares shall at all time be subject to the sufficiency of the authorized share capital of the Company.

6. Where the Company increases its issued share capital by issuing new shares for cash consideration in the ROC, the Company shall allocate 10% of the total amount of the new shares to be issued, for offering in the ROC to the public unless it is not necessary or appropriate, as determined by the FSC, TSE or GTSM, for the Company to conduct the aforementioned public offering. However, if a percentage higher than the aforementioned 10% is resolved by a general meeting to be offered, the percentage determined by such resolution shall prevail. The Company may also reserve up to 15% of such newly issued shares for subscription by employees of the Company and/or of the Company's Subsidiary(ies). For the avoidance of doubt, this Article 6 does not apply to issuance of Shares resulting from or in connection with any merger, consolidation, spin-off, amalgamation, asset acquisition, reorganization, share swap, share subdivision, stock exchange, conversion of convertible securities, debt instruments or preferred Shares, other issuance of shares for consideration other than cash, issuance of Shares upon exercise of share options, warrants, awards or other rights, or issuance of Restricted Shares ("Excluded Issuance").

The Company shall state in such announcement and notices to the Members that if any Member fails to subscribe for his/her/its pro rata portion of such remaining newly-issued Shares within the prescribed period, such Member shall be deemed to forfeit his/her/its pre-emptive right to subscribe for such newly-issued Shares. If the total number of the new Shares to be issued has not been fully subscribed for by the Members within the prescribed period, the Company may consolidate such Shares into the public offering tranche or offer any un-subscribed new Shares to a specific person or persons according to the Applicable Public Company Rules. The foregoing Members' pre-emptive right shall not apply to an Excluded Issuance.

The maximum aggregate number of the Shares that may be subject to subscription pursuant to any such incentive programme shall be 15% of then registered issued Shares.

10. Options, warrants or other similar instruments issued in accordance with Article 9 above are not transferable except for inheritance.

10-1. To the extent permitted under and subject to the Applicable Public Company Rules and the Statute, the Company may, with the approval of a Supermajority Resolution, issue new Shares with restricted rights ("Restricted Shares") solely to employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries and Article 6 and 7 shall not apply to such issue of Shares. The terms of issue of Restricted Shares, including but not limited to the number, issue price, issue conditions and other related matters, shall comply with the Applicable Public Company Rules. The Company may repurchase the Restricted Shares issued to the relevant employees pursuant to Article 120-3 hereof if the vesting conditions set forth in the plan of Restricted Shares are not met.

11. The Company may enter into agreements with employees of the Company and the employees of its Subsidiaries in relation to the incentive programme approved pursuant to Article 9 above, whereby employees may subscribe, within a specific period, a specific number of the Shares at an agreed subscription price. The terms and conditions of such agreements shall be no less restrictive on relevant employee than the terms specified in the applicable incentive programme.

12. The Company shall not issue Shares in bearer form. The Company shall not issue Shares without nominal or par value.

13. The Company shall maintain or cause to be maintained the Register of Members.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any modification or alteration in these Articles is prejudicial to the preferential rights of any class of Shares, in addition to the Special Resolution, such modification or alternation shall also be approved by a Special Resolution passed in a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

15. The provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall apply to every such general meeting of the holders of one class of shares except that the necessary quorum shall be one person holding or representing by proxy at least a majority of the issued shares of the class.

16. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking in priority to or pari passu therewith.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

17. The instrument of transfer of any shares, if required, shall be in writing and shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of a share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.

18. The transfer of Share may be conducted via the following methods.

(a) Subject to these Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules, any Member may transfer all or any of his/her/its Shares by an instrument of transfer. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of a Share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members.

The Company shall, by notice, require the holder of Shares to give instructions, or appoint a person to give instructions, necessary to transfer title to that Share by means of the relevant system pursuant to the applicable regulations, the facilities and the requirements of the relevant system; provided that such instructions shall be subject always to these Articles and the laws of the Cayman Islands and the Applicable Public Company Rules.

NONRECOGNITION OF TRUSTS

19. No person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof), any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as is otherwise provided by these Articles or the Statute) any other rights in respect of any share, except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

21. In case of the death of a Member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and legal personal representatives of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of any such deceased holder from any liability in respect of any shares which had been held by him solely or jointly with other persons.

22. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy or liquidation or dissolution of a Member (or in any other way than by transfer) may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to make such transfer of the share to such other person nominated by him as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made and to have such person registered as the transferee thereof, but the Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that Member before his death or bankruptcy as the case may be. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself as holder, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.

23. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy or liquidation or dissolution of the holder (or in any other case than by transfer) shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a Member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the Board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and, if the notice is not complied with within ninety (90) days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

90. Except as otherwise provided by these Articles, the Directors shall meet together for the dispatch of business, convening, adjourning and otherwise regulating their meetings as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided, resolutions put to the vote at meeting of the Board shall be adopted and other action shall be taken only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors and alternate Directors present at a meeting at which the Quorum of the Board Meeting is present and no resolution shall be passed in the case of an equality of votes. The chairman of the meeting does not have a second vote or casting vote. A Director who is also an alternate Director shall be entitled in the absence of his appointor to a separate vote on behalf of his appointor in addition to his own vote. The vote of an alternate Director shall not be counted if his appointor is present at such meeting.

91. The Chairman may, and the Secretary on the requisition of the Chairman shall, at any time summon a meeting of the Board. Notice of a meeting of the Board shall be deemed to be duly given to a Director if it is given to such Director verbally (in person or by telephone) or otherwise communicated or sent to such Director by post, cable, telex, telecopier, facsimile, electronic mail or other mode of representing words in a legible form at such Director's last known address or any other address given by such Director to the Company for this purpose. At least seven (7) days' prior notice shall be given for any meeting of the Board of the Directors provided that the Board of Directors may meet at any time in case of any urgent circumstances where the majority of the Directors agree to waive notice of such meeting either at, before, or after the meeting is held. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made part of the minutes of the meeting. A waiver of notice need not specify the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board, of Directors.

92. A meeting at which a Quorum of the Board Meeting is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the vote of the Directors and alternate Directors present at a meeting at which the Quorum of the Board Meeting is present.

93. For the purposes of Article 90 an alternate Director or proxy appointed by a Director shall be counted in the Quorum of the Board Meeting at a meeting at which the Director appointing him is not present. A Director who also acts as an alternate Director shall, if his appointor is not present, count twice towards the Quorum of the Board Meeting.

94. The continuing Directors (or a sole continuing Director, as the case may be) may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to the Articles, the continuing Directors or Director may act for the purpose of summoning a general meeting of the Company pursuant to Articles 103 and 104 below to appoint additional Directors so that the number of Directors will be equal to such fixed number, but for no other purpose.

95. The Directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of the Board of Directors (including alternate Directors in the absence of their appointors) as they think fit; any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Directors.

96. A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Except for otherwise provided in the Applicable Laws, questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by the affirmative vote of the majority of the committee members present.

97. All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors (including any person acting as an alternate Director) shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any Director or alternate Director, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and qualified to be a Director or alternate Director as the case may be.

98. Members of the Board or of any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board or of such committee by means of video conference or similar communications facilities by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can see and communicate with each other at the same time and participation in a meeting pursuant to this manner shall be treated as presence in person at such meeting.

99. A Director but not an alternate Director may be represented at any meetings of the Board or committee of the Board by a proxy appointed in writing by him/her. A Director appointing another Director to attend a Board meeting as his or her proxy shall issue a proxy, valid only for the particular appointment, listing the powers and authorities in relation to the reasons for convening the meeting granted to the proxy agent. The proxy shall count towards the Quorum of the Board Meeting and the vote of the proxy shall for all purposes be deemed to be that of the appointing Director.

100. The rules and procedures of the meeting of the Board shall be established by the Board in accordance with these Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules. Subject to the foregoing, the Directors may regulate their proceeding as they see fit.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

101. The Company may at a general meeting elect any person to be a Director, which vote shall be calculated in accordance with Article 102 below. Members present in person or by proxy, representing more than one-half of the total outstanding Shares shall constitute a quorum for any general meeting to elect one or more Directors.

102. Directors shall be elected pursuant to Cumulative Voting pursuant to a poll vote, where the number of votes exercisable by any Member shall be the same as the product of the number of Shares held by such Member and the number of Directors to be elected (“Special Ballot Votes”), and the total number of Special Ballot Votes cast by any Member may be consolidated for election of one Director candidate or may be split for election amongst multiple Director candidates, as specified by the Member pursuant to the poll vote ballot. The top candidates in the number equal to the number of the Directors to be elected, to whom the votes cast represent a prevailing number of votes relative to the other candidates, shall be deemed Directors elected. For so long as the Shares are listed on the GTSM or the TSE, as applicable, (a) the Company may adopt a candidate nomination mechanism for the election of the Directors which is in compliance with the Applicable Public Company Rules. The rules and procedures for such candidate nomination shall be in accordance with policies established by the Board and by an Ordinary Resolution from time to time, which policies shall be in accordance with the Statute, the Memorandum, the Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules; (b) subject to the requirement of the competent securities authority in the ROC, such candidate nomination mechanism in compliance with the Applicable Public Company Rules shall also be used for the election of Independent Directors.

103. If the number of Directors is less than five (5) persons due to the vacancy of Director(s) for any reason, the Company shall hold an election of Director(s) at the next following general meeting. When the number of vacancies of Directors fall short by one third (1/3) of the total number of Directors prescribed by these Articles, an extraordinary general meeting of Members shall be convened within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of that fact to hold a by-election of directors.

104. If the number of Independent Directors is less than three (3) persons due to the resignation or removal of any of the Independent Director(s) for any reason, the Company shall hold an election of Independent Directors at the next following general meeting. If all of the Independent Directors have resigned or are removed, the Company shall hold, within sixty (60) days from the occurrence of such resignations or removals of the last Independent Directors, an extraordinary general meeting to elect Independent Directors to fill the vacancies.

RESIGNATION, REMOVAL AND DISQUALIFICATION

105. Any Director may resign effective on giving written notice to the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for that resignation to become effective.

106. The Company may from time to time by Supermajority Resolution remove any Director from office, whether or not appointing another person to fill in the vacancy; provided that the Company may remove all Directors and elect new Directors to fill the vacancies at the same time in accordance with this Article and Article 102 and unless the resolution approving such removal and election provides otherwise, the existing Directors' office shall be automatically discharged upon the passing of such resolution prior to the expiration of such Directors' applicable period of office.

107. The office of a Director shall be vacated if the Director:

(a) is removed from office pursuant to these Articles;

(b) gives notice in writing to the Company that he resigns the office of Director;

(c) dies, becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally;

(d) an order is made by any competent court or official on the grounds that he is or will be suffering from mental disorder or is otherwise incapable of managing his affairs, or his legal capacity is restricted according to the Applicable Laws;

(e) having committed an offence as specified in the ROC statute of prevention of organizational crimes and subsequently adjudicated guilty by a final judgment, and the time elapsed after he has served the full term of such sentence is less than five (5) years;

(f) having committed an offence involving fraud, breach of trust or misappropriation and subsequently sentenced to imprisonment of a term of more than one (1) year, and the time elapsed after he has served the full term of such sentence is less than two (2) years;

(g) having been adjudicated guilty by a final judgment for misappropriating public funds during the time of his public service, and the time elapsed after he has served the full term of such sentence is less than two (2) years; or

(h) having been dishonored for use of negotiable instruments, and the term of such sanction has not yet expired.

In the event that any of the foregoing events described in clauses (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) has occurred to a candidate for Directorship, such person shall be disqualified from being elected as a Director.

108. In case a Director has, in the course of performing his/her duties, committed any act resulting in material damages to the Company or in serious violation of applicable laws and regulations and/or these Articles, but not removed by a Supermajority Resolution of a general meeting, the Member(s) holding three (3) percentage or more of the total number of outstanding shares of the Company may, within thirty (30) days after that general meeting, to the extent permissible under Applicable Law, petition any competent court, which for these purposes and to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, shall include the Taipei District Court, for the removal of such Director and such Director shall be removed upon the final judgment by such court. For clarification, if a relevant court has competent jurisdiction to adjudicate all of the foregoing matters in a single or a series of proceedings, then, for the purpose of this Article, final judgment shall be given by such competent court.

108-1. Without limiting the availability of applicable remedies under Cayman Islands law, and only to the extent ROC law permits, in case a Director has, in the course of performing his/her duties, committed any act resulting in material damages to the Company or in serious violation of Applicable Laws and regulations and/or Articles, the Member(s) who has been individually, or have been collectively, continuously holding 3% or more of the total number of the issued shares of the Company over one year may, in his/her/its name, launch a litigation against such Director and the Taipei District Court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction on such litigation.

108-2. For so long as the Shares are listed on the GTSM or the TSE, subject to the Applicable Public Company Rules (and the interpretation thereof), any Director who, during his/her term and in one or more transactions, accumulatively transfers more than fifty percent (50%) of the total Shares held by such Director at the time he/she is elected at a general meeting (the "Election Time"), shall be discharged or vacated from the office of Director automatically and no shareholders' approval shall be required. For so long as the Shares are listed on the GTSM or the TSE, subject to the Applicable Public Company Rules (and the interpretation thereof), if any person transfers, in one or more transactions, more than fifty percent (50%) of the Shares held by him/her at the Election Time either (i) during the period from the Election Time to the commencement date of his/her office as Director, or (ii) during the period when the Register of Member is closed for transfer of Shares prior to the general meeting at which such person is elected as a Director, his/her appointment or election as Director shall be null and void. For the purpose of calculation of the aggregate number of Shares transferred by the Director, any transfer of Shares by the Director prior to the adoption of this Article 108-2 shall be counted in. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Article 108-2 shall not apply retroactively and thus the Director who has transferred more than fifty percent (50%) of the total Shares held by such Director at the Election Time prior to the adoption of this Article 108-2 shall not be discharged or vacated from the office upon the adoption of this Article 108-2 and for the avoidance of doubt, any transfer of Shares by such Director after the adoption of this Article 108-2 shall be subject to this Article 108-2 and shall be aggregated with the Shares transferred prior to the adoption of this Article 108-2.

109. Within seven (7) days after the receipt of the copy of a tender offer application form and relevant documents by the Company or its litigation or non litigation agent appointed pursuant to the Applicable Public Company Rules, the Board shall resolve to recommend to the Member whether to accept or object the tender offer and make a public announcement of the following:

(a) the types and number of the Shares held by the Directors and the Members holding more than 10% of the outstanding Shares in their own names or in the names of other persons,

(b) recommendations to the Members on the tender offer, which shall set forth the names of the Directors who abstain or object to the tender offer and the reason(s) therefore,

The Seal shall only be used by the authority of the Board or of a committee of the Directors authorized by the Board in that behalf and every instrument to which the Seal has been affixed shall be signed by one person who shall be either a Director or the Secretary or secretary-treasurer or some person appointed by the Directors for the purpose:

111. The Company may have a President, a Secretary or Secretary-Treasurer appointed by the Board who may also from time to time appoint such other officers as they consider necessary, all for such terms, at such remuneration and to perform such duties, and subject to such provisions as to disqualification and removal as the Directors from time to time prescribe. The officers, in the course of performing their duties to the Company, shall assume responsibilities identical to that of the Directors.

LITIGATION AND NON LITIGATION AGENT

111-1. So long as the Shares are listed on the GTSM, the Company shall, by a resolution of the Directors, appoint or remove a litigation and non-litigation agent pursuant to the Applicable Public Company Rules to act as the Company's responsible person in the ROC to handle matters stipulated in the ROC Securities and Exchange Act and the relevant rules and regulations thereto.

DIVIDENDS

112. All dividends declared shall be declared payable to the holders thereof registered as such on the record date specified by the Directors at the time such dividends are declared.

113. Subject to the Statute and this Article and except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to any Shares, the Company may declare dividends following the Board's recommendation in a distribution plan approved by the Board, with the sanction of Ordinary Resolution in the case of Article 75 or Supermajority Resolution in the case of Article 24(e)(i), resolve to pay Dividends and other distributions on Shares in issue and authorise payment of the Dividends or other distributions out of the funds of the Company lawfully available therefor. The Board shall provide the distribution plan according to the following requirements: If there are profits after the final settlement of account of a year (the "Annual Profits"), the Company (i) after its losses have been offset and at the time of allocating surplus profits, may first set aside 10% of the Annual Profits as statutory reserve until the statutory reserve amounts to the authorized capital, (ii) may appropriate a portion of the Annual Profits as special reserve required by Applicable Public Company Rules or government authorities, and (iii) of the remaining of the Annual Profits, may appropriate 2% as bonuses to the Directors and additional not less than 5% of the remaining profits as employee bonus (the "Employee Bonus"), which shall be distributed in accordance with the incentive programme approved pursuant to Article 9. The Board shall specify the percentages of the bonuses payable to the employees in the distribution plan which may subsequently be subject to the amendment by the Members by way of the aforementioned Supermajority Resolution. Thereafter, having considered the financial, business and operational factors, the Board may propose and specify no less than 10% of any remaining of Annual Profits after the above (i) to (ii) plus, at the Board's sole discretion, a certain percent of accumulated retained earnings to be distributed as dividends by cash or by applying such sum in paying up in full unissued Shares for allotment and distribution credited as fully paid-up pro rata to the Members or any combination of both, or bonuses according to the Statute and Applicable Public Company Rules, among them, cash dividend shall not less than 10% of the total Dividend declared.

114. The Directors may, before resolving to pay any dividends, or distributions set aside such sums as they think proper as a reserve or reserves which shall at the discretion of the Directors, be applicable for any purpose of the Company and pending such application may, at the like discretion, be employed in the business of the Company.

116. The Directors may deduct from any dividend or distribution payable to any Member all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company for any reason.

117. The Directors may declare that any dividend or distribution be paid wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of any other company or in any one or more of such ways and where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all Members and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Directors.

118. Any dividend, interest or other monies payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by check or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the holder who is first named on the register of Members or to such person and to such address as such holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Every such check or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent. 119. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.

REPURCHASE

120. Subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Company may purchase its own Shares (including any redeemable Shares).

In such manner as is referred to in Section 37(3)(d) of the Statute or any modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force, this Article authorises the purchase by the Company in accordance with the provisions of the Statute of such of its own Shares (including any redeemable Shares) as the Directors may from time to time determine and agree with the holder or holders of such Shares, in such manner and on such terms as the Directors may from time to time determine and agree, provided that the price at which such purchase is transacted must be equal to the lower of: (i) the original purchase price paid for the shares; or (ii) the fair market value of the shares at the time of the repurchase by the Company, as determined in good faith by the Directors.

The Company may make a payment in respect of the redemption or purchase of its own Shares in any manner permitted by the Statute, including out of capital.

120-1. Subject to the provisions of the Statute, these Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules, the Company may, upon approval by a majority of the Directors at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the total number of the Directors, purchase its own Shares (including any redeemable Shares). In the event that the Company proposes to purchase any Share listed on the GTSM pursuant to this Article, the approval of the Board and the implementation thereof should be reported to the Members at the next general meeting in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules. Such reporting obligation shall apply even if the Company does not implement the proposal to purchase its Shares listed on the GTSM for any reason.

120-2 The Directors may, prior to the purchase or redemption of any Share under Article 120-1, determine that such Shares shall be held as Treasury Shares. Subject to the provision of the Statute and these Articles, the Directors may determine to cancel a Treasury Share or transfer a Treasury Share to the employees on such terms as they think proper (including, without limitation, for nil consideration).

120-3 Any proposal to transfer Treasury Shares to any employee of the Company and its Subsidiaries by the Company at a price below the average repurchase price paid by the Company shall be approved by a resolution passed by two-thirds or more of the Members present at the general meeting who represent a majority of the total outstanding Shares at the most recent general meeting. The notice of the general meeting shall specify the following matters, which may not be made by an ad hoc motion:

- (a) the basis and reasonableness of the determined transfer price, discount ratio and calculation;
- (b) the number, purpose and reasonableness of the share transfer;
- (c) conditions for and volume of share to be purchased by relevant employees; and
- (d) any effect on the shareholders' rights, including:
 - (i) the amount which may be recorded as expenses and any dilution on earnings per Share; and
 - (ii) any financial burden on the Company caused by such transfer of Treasury Shares to relevant employees at a price lower than the average repurchase price paid by the Company.

The aggregate number of Treasury Shares that may be transferred to relevant employees as approved by the Members at various general meetings shall not exceed five (5) percent of the total outstanding Shares, and the aggregate number of Treasury Shares that may be purchased by each employee shall not exceed 0.5 percent of the total outstanding Shares. The Company may impose restrictions on the transfer of such Shares by the employees for a period of no more than two (2) years.

120-4. The Company may repurchase the Restricted Shares issued to the employees if the vesting conditions are not met pursuant to the plan of Restricted Shares.

CAPITALIZATION

121. Subject to the Statute, the Board may, with the authority of a Supermajority Resolution, at any time capitalize any sum standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts (including statutory reserve, Capital Reserve, and capital redemption reserve fund) or any sum standing to the credit or profit and loan amount or otherwise available for distribution and to appropriate such sum to Members in the proportions in which such sum would have been divisible amongst them had the same been a distribution of profits by way of dividend and to apply such sum on their behalf in paying up in full unissued shares (not being redeemable shares)

for allotment and distribution credited as fully paid up to and amongst them in the proportion aforesaid. In such event the Directors shall do all acts and things required to give effect to such capitalization, with full power to the Directors to make such provisions as they think fit for the case of shares becoming distributable in fractions (including provisions whereby the benefit of fractional entitlements accrue to the Company rather than to the Members concerned). The Directors may authorize any person to enter on behalf of all of the Members interested into an agreement with the Company providing for such capitalization and matters incidental thereto and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members and the Company.

BOOKS OF ACCOUNT

122. The Board shall cause proper books of account to be kept with respect to:

A valid resolution of the Audit Committee requires the consent of one-half or more of all its members. Except for otherwise provided for in the Statute to the contrary, the rules and procedures of meeting of the Audit Committee shall be in accordance with these Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules.

125. Notices shall be in writing and may be given by the Company to any Member either personally or by sending it by post, cable, telex, telecopy or electronic mail to him or to his address as shown in the register of Members or such other address given for such purpose.

126. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, pre-paying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected at the expiration of sixty (60) hours after the letter containing the same is posted as aforesaid. Where a notice is sent by cable, telex, telecopy or electronic mail, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, and sending such notice through a transmitting organization and to have been effected on the day the same is sent as aforesaid.

127. A notice may be given by the Company to the joint holders of record of a share by giving the notice to the joint holder first named on the register of Members in respect of the share.

128. A notice may be given by the Company to the person or persons which the Company has been advised are entitled to a share or shares in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member by sending it through the post as aforesaid in a pre-paid letter addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt, or by any like description at the address supplied for that purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or at the option of the Company by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.

WINDING UP

130. If the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution amongst the Members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid-up capital, such assets shall be distributed so that, as nearly as may be, the losses shall be borne by the Members in proportion to the capital paid up, or which ought to have been paid up, at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. And if in a winding up the assets available for distribution amongst the Members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the excess shall be distributed amongst the Members in proportion to the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. This Article is to be without prejudice to the rights of the holders of shares issued upon special terms and conditions.

131. If the Company shall be wound up the liquidator may, subject to the rights attached to any Shares and with the sanction of a Special Resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Statute, divide amongst the Members in proportion to the number of the Shares held by them in kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether such assets shall consist of property of the same kind or not) and may for that purpose value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the Members or different classes of Members. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the Members as the liquidator, with the like sanction, shall think fit, but so that no Member shall be compelled to accept any asset upon which there is a liability.

INDEMNITY

132. Every Director and officer of the Company, together with every former Director and former officer of the Company (each an “Indemnified Person”) shall be indemnified to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws and held harmless by the Company against all claims, actions, proceedings, costs, charges, expenses (including but not limited to legal expense), losses, damages, or liabilities incurred or sustained by such Indemnified Person, whatsoever which they or any of them may incur as a result of any act or omission to act in carrying out their function except to the extent that such claims, actions, proceedings, costs, charges, expenses (including but not limited to legal expense), losses, damages, or liabilities are found in a judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction that is final and non-appealable to have resulted from such Indemnified Person’s own willful default or actual fraud. The Company is allowed to enter into indemnification contract or contract of similar nature with the aforementioned Indemnified Person and to purchase and to maintain insurance for the benefit of such Indemnified Person against any liability which, by virtue of any rule of law, would otherwise attach to such Indemnified Person in respect to of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which such Indemnified Person may be guilty in relation to the Company. Notwithstanding anything provided herein, no such Indemnified Person shall be answerable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other Indemnified Person or for joining in any receipt for the sake of conformity or for the solvency or honesty of any banker or other persons with whom any monies or effects belonging to the Company may be lodged or deposited for safe custody or for any insufficiency of any security upon which any monies of the Company may be invested or for any other loss or damage due to any such cause as aforesaid or which may happen in or about the execution of his office except the same shall happen through the willful default or actual fraud of such Indemnified Person.
