4. Subject to the provisions in the Statute, the Company shall issue shares without printing share certificates for the Shares issued. Subject to these Articles, the provisions, if any, in the Memorandum (and to any direction that may be given by the Company in general meeting) and without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing Shares, the Board may allot, issue, grant options over or otherwise dispose of Shares with or without preferred, deferred or other rights or restrictions, whether in regard to Dividend or other distribution, voting, return of capital or otherwise and to such persons, at such times and on such other terms as they think proper, and may also (subject to the Statute and these Articles) vary such rights; provided that no Share shall be issued at a discount except in accordance with the Statute. The issue of new shares shall at all time be subject to the sufficiency of the authorized share capital of the Company.

6. Where the Company increases its issued share capital by issuing new shares for cash consideration in the ROC, the Company shall allocate 10% of the total amount of the new shares to be issued, for offering in the ROC to the public unless it is not necessary or appropriate, as determined by the FSC, TSE or TPEX, for the Company to conduct the aforementioned public offering. However, if a percentage higher than the aforementioned 10% is resolved by a general meeting to be offered, the percentage determined by such resolution shall prevail. In the event any subscriber Member delays in making full payment of the subscription price, the Company may fix a period of not less than [one month] and call upon such subscriber Member to pay up, declaring that in case of default of payment within such stipulated period, such Member shall be deemed to forfeit his/her/its pre-emptive right to subscribe for such newly-issued Shares. The continuing Directors (or a sole continuing Director, as the case may be) may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to the Articles, the continuing Directors or Director may act for the purpose of summoning a general meeting of the Company pursuant to Articles 103 and 104 below to appoint additional Directors so that the number of Directors will be equal to such fixed number, but for no other purpose.

95. The Directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of the Board of Directors (including alternate Directors in the absence of their appointors) as they think fit; any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Directors.

96. A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Except for otherwise provided in the Applicable Laws, questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by the affirmative vote of the majority of the committee members present.

97. All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors (including any person acting as an alternate Director) shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any Director or alternate Director, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and qualified to be a Director or alternate Director as the case may be.

98. Members of the Board or of any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board or of such committee by means of video conference or similar communications facilities by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can see and communicate with each other at the same time and participation in a meeting pursuant to this manner shall be treated as presence in person at such meeting.

99. A Director but not an alternate Director may be represented at any meetings of the Board or committee of the Board by a proxy appointed in writing by him/her. A Director appointing another Director to attend a Board meeting as his or her proxy shall issue a proxy, valid only for the particular appointment, listing the powers and authorities in relation to the reasons for convening the meeting granted to the proxy agent. The proxy shall count towards the Quorum of the Board Meeting and the vote of the proxy shall for all purposes be deemed to be that of the appointing Director.

100. The rules and procedures of the meeting of the Board shall be established by the Board in accordance with these Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules. Subject to the foregoing, the Directors may regulate their proceeding as they see fit.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

101. The Company may at a general meeting elect any person to be a Director, which vote shall be calculated in accordance with Article 102 below. Members present in person or by proxy, representing more than one-half of the total outstanding Shares shall constitute a quorum for any general meeting to elect one or more Directors.

102. Directors shall be elected pursuant to Cumulative Voting pursuant to a poll vote, where the number of votes exercisable by any Member shall be the same as the product of the number of Shares held by such Member and the number of Directors to be elected (“Special Ballot Votes”), and the total number of Special Ballot Votes cast by any Member may be consolidated for election of one Director candidate or may be split for election amongst multiple Director candidates, as specified by the Member pursuant to the poll vote ballot. The top candidates in the number equal to the number of the Directors to be elected, to whom the votes cast represent a prevailing number of votes relative to the other candidates, shall be deemed Directors elected. For so long as the Shares are listed on the TPEx or the TSE, as applicable, (a) the Company shall adopt a candidate nomination mechanism for the election of the Directors which is in compliance with the Applicable Public Company Rules. The rules and procedures for such candidate nomination shall be in accordance with policies established by the Board and by an Ordinary Resolution from time to time, which policies shall be in accordance with the Statute, the Memorandum, the Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules; (b) subject to the requirement of the competent securities authority in the ROC, such candidate nomination mechanism in compliance with the Applicable Public Company Rules shall also be used for the election of Independent Directors.

103. If the number of Directors is less than five (5) persons due to the vacancy of Director(s) for any reason, the Company shall hold an election of Director(s) at the next following general meeting. When the number of vacancies of Directors fall short by one third (1/3) of the total number of Directors prescribed by these Articles, an extraordinary general meeting of Members shall be convened within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of that fact to hold a by-election of directors.

104. If the number of Independent Directors is less than three (3) persons due to the resignation or removal of any of the Independent Director(s) for any reason, the Company shall hold an election of Independent Directors at the next following general meeting. If all of the Independent Directors have resigned or are removed, the Company shall hold, within sixty (60) days from the occurrence of such resignations or removals of the last Independent Directors, an extraordinary general meeting to elect Independent Directors to fill the vacancies.

RESIGNATION, REMOVAL AND DISQUALIFICATION

105. Any Director may resign effective on giving written notice to the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for that resignation to become effective.

106. The Company may from time to time by Supermajority Resolution remove any Director from office, whether or not appointing another person to fill in the vacancy; provided that the Company may remove all Directors and elect new Directors to fill the vacancies at the same time in accordance with this Article and Article 102 and unless the resolution approving such removal and election provides otherwise, the existing Directors' office shall be automatically discharged upon the passing of such resolution prior to the expiration of such Directors' applicable period of office.

107. The office of a Director shall be vacated if the Director:

(a) is removed from office pursuant to these Articles;

(b) gives notice in writing to the Company that he resigns the office of Director;

(c) dies, becomes bankrupt or under the liquidation process as adjudicated by a court and having not been reinstated to his rights and privileges, or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally;

(d) an order is made by any competent court or official on the grounds that he is or will be suffering from mental disorder or is otherwise incapable of managing his affairs, or his legal capacity is restricted according to the Applicable Laws;

(e) has committed an offence as specified in the ROC Organized Crime Prevention Act and subsequently adjudicated guilty by a final judgment, and (i) has not commenced to serve the term of sentence, (ii) has commenced to serve the term of sentence but not served the full term, or (iii) less than five (5) years have elapsed from the date of completion of the full sentence, the date of expiry of the probation period or the date on which he has been pardoned;

(f) has committed an offence involving fraud, breach of trust or misappropriation and subsequently sentenced to imprisonment of a term of more than one (1) year by a final judgment, and (i) has not commenced to serve the term of sentence, (ii) has commenced to serve the term of sentence but not served the full term, or (iii) less than two (2) years have elapsed from the date of completion of the full sentence, the date of expiry of the probation period or the date on which he has been pardoned;

(g) has committed an offense as specified in the Anti-Corruption Act and subsequently adjudicated guilty by a final judgment, and (i) has not commenced to serve the term of sentence, (ii) has commenced to serve the term of sentence but not served the full term, or (iii) less than two (2) years have elapsed from the date of completion of the full sentence, the date of expiry of the probation period or the date on which he has been pardoned;

(h) has been dishonored for use of negotiable instruments, and the term of such sanction has not yet expired; or

(i) has been adjudicated of the commencement of assistantship (as defined in the Civil Code of the ROC) and such assistantship or similar declaration having not been revoked.

In the event that any of the foregoing events described in clauses (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h) and (i) has occurred to a candidate for Directorship, such person shall be disqualified from being elected as a Director.

108. In case a Director has, in the course of performing his/her duties, committed any act resulting in material damages to the Company or in serious violation of applicable laws and regulations and/or these Articles, but not removed by a Supermajority Resolution of a general meeting, the Member(s) holding three (3) percentage or more of the total number of outstanding shares of the Company may, within thirty (30) days after that general meeting, to the extent permissible under Applicable Laws, petition any competent court, which for these purposes and to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, shall include the Taipei District Court, for the removal of such Director and such Director shall be removed upon the final judgment by such court. For clarification, if a relevant court has competent jurisdiction to adjudicate all of the foregoing matters in a single or a series of proceedings, then, for the purpose of this Article, final judgment shall be given by such competent court.

108-1. Without limiting the availability of applicable remedies under Cayman Islands law, and only to the extent ROC law permits, in case a Director has, in the course of performing his/her duties, committed any act resulting in material damages to the Company or in serious violation of Applicable Laws and regulations and/or Articles, the Member(s) who has been individually, or have been collectively, continuously holding 1% or more of the total number of the issued shares of the Company over six (6) months may, in his/her/its name, launch a litigation against such Director and the Taipei District Court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction on such litigation.

108-2. For so long as the Shares are listed on the TPEX or the TSE, subject to the Applicable Public Company Rules (and the interpretation thereof), any Director (excluding Independent Director) who, during his/her term and in one or more transactions, accumulatively transfers more than fifty percent (50%) of the total Shares held by such Director at the time he/she is elected at a general meeting (the "Election Time"), shall be discharged or vacated from the office of Director automatically and no shareholders' approval shall be required. For so long as the Shares are listed on the TPEX or the TSE, subject to the Applicable Public Company Rules (and the interpretation thereof), if any person transfers, in one or more transactions, more than fifty percent (50%) of the Shares held by him/her at the Election Time either (i) during the period from the Election Time to the commencement date of his/her office as Director, or (ii) during the period when the Register of Member is closed for transfer of Shares prior to the general meeting at which such person is elected as a Director (excluding Independent Director), his/her appointment or election as Director shall be null and void. For the purpose of calculation of the aggregate number of Shares transferred by the Director, any transfer of Shares by the Director prior to the adoption of this Article 108-2 shall be counted in. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Article 108-2 shall not apply retroactively and thus the Director who has transferred more than fifty percent (50%) of the total Shares held by such Director at the Election Time prior to the adoption of this Article 108-2 shall not be discharged or vacated from the office upon the adoption of this Article 108-2 and for the avoidance of doubt, any transfer of Shares by such Director after the adoption of this Article 108-2 shall be subject to this Article 108-2 and shall be aggregated with the Shares transferred prior to the adoption of this Article 108-2.

SEAL

110. The Company may, if the Board so determine, have a Seal. The Seal shall only be used by the authority of the Board or of a committee of the Directors authorized by the Board in that behalf and every instrument to which the Seal has been affixed shall be signed by one person who shall be either a Director or the Secretary or secretary-treasurer or some person appointed by the Directors for the purpose:

PROVIDED THAT the Company may have for use in any place or places outside the Cayman Islands, a duplicate seal or seals each of which shall be a facsimile of the Common Seal of the Company and, if the Board so determine, with the addition on its face of the name of every place where it is to be used; and

PROVIDED FURTHER THAT a Director, Secretary or other officer or representative or attorney of the Company may without further authority of the Directors affix the Seal of the Company over his signature alone to any document of the Company required to be authenticated by him under Seal or to be filed with the Registrar of Companies in the Cayman Islands or elsewhere wheresoever.

OFFICERS

111. The Company may have a President, a Secretary or Secretary-Treasurer appointed by the Board who may also from time to time appoint such other officers as they consider necessary, all for such terms, at such remuneration and to perform such duties, and subject to such provisions as to disqualification and removal as the Directors from time to time prescribe. The officers, in the course of performing their duties to the Company, shall assume responsibilities identical to that of the Directors.

LITIGATION AND NON LITIGATION AGENT

111-1. So long as the Shares are listed on the TPEX, the Company shall, by a resolution of the Directors, appoint or remove a litigation and non-litigation agent pursuant to the Applicable Public Company Rules to act as the Company's responsible person in the ROC to handle matters stipulated in the ROC Securities and Exchange Act and the relevant rules and regulations thereto.

DIVIDENDS

112. All dividends declared shall be declared payable to the holders thereof registered as such on the record date specified by the Directors at the time such dividends are declared.

113. Unless otherwise provided in the Applicable Public Company Rules, where the Company makes profits before tax for the annual financial year, the Company shall appropriate (i) no less than 3.0% and up to 7.5% of such annual profits before tax as employee bonus (the “Employee Bonus”), which shall be distributed in accordance with the incentive programme approved pursuant to Article 9 and may be distributed to employees of the Company and/or the employees of its Subsidiaries and (ii) a maximum of 2% additional Directors’ remunerations. Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, if the Company has accumulated losses of the previous years, the Company shall set aside the amount of such accumulated losses prior to the allocation of the Employee Bonus and the above additional Directors’ remunerations. Subject always to the laws of the Cayman Islands, the Employee Bonus may be distributed in the form of cash and/or shares, upon resolution by a majority votes at a meeting of the Board of Directors attended by two-thirds (2/3) or more of the Directors. For the avoidance of doubt, for the purpose of calculation of the above Employee Bonus and the additional Directors’ remunerations, such “annual profits before tax” shall be without giving effect of the deduction and distribution of such Employee Bonus and the additional Directors’ remunerations. The resolutions of Board of Directors regarding the distribution of the Employee Bonus in the preceding sentence shall be reported to the Members at the general meeting after such Board resolutions are passed. Subject to the Statute and this Article and except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to any Shares, the Company may declare dividends following the Board’s recommendation in a distribution plan approved by the Board, with the sanction of Supermajority Resolution in the case of Article 24(e)(i), resolve to pay Dividends and other distributions on Shares in issue and authorise payment of the Dividends or other distributions out of the funds of the Company lawfully available therefor. The Board shall provide the distribution plan according to the following requirements: If there are profits after the final settlement of account of a year (the “Annual Profits”), the Company (i) after its losses have been offset and at the time of allocating surplus profits, may first set aside 10% of the Annual Profits as statutory reserve until the statutory reserve amounts to the authorized capital, and (ii) may appropriate a portion of the Annual Profits as special reserve required by Applicable Public Company Rules or government authorities. Thereafter, having considered the financial, business and operational factors, the Board may propose and specify no less than 10% of any remaining of Annual Profits after the above (i) to (ii) plus, at the Board’s sole discretion, a certain percent of accumulated retained earnings to be distributed as dividends by cash or by applying such sum in paying up in full unissued Shares for allotment and distribution credited as fully paid-up pro rata to the Members or any combination of both, or bonuses according to the Statute and Applicable Public Company Rules, among them, cash dividend shall not less than 10% of the total Dividend declared. The Company may distribute to the Members, in the form of cash, all or a portion of its Dividend and/or statutory reserve by a majority of the Directors at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the total number of the Directors, and shall subsequently report such distribution to the Members at the general meeting.

113-1 At the close of each of the half fiscal year, the Board may resolve to distribute profits or allocate losses; provided, however, that any distribution of profits by way of capitalization of distributable dividends shall be subject to the Supermajority Resolution. The foregoing proposal, together with the business report and the financial statements, which shall be audited or reviewed by the certified public accountant, shall be submitted to the Audit Committee for audit first and afterwards be submitted to the Board for approval. In the case of profits distribution under this Article 113-1, the Company shall estimate and reserve the taxes and dues to be paid, the losses to be covered and the statutory reserve to be set aside; provided, however, that if the statutory reserve has amounted to the total paid-in capitals, this requirement does not apply.

114. The Directors may, before resolving to pay any dividends, or distributions set aside such sums as they think proper as a reserve or reserves which shall at the discretion of the Directors, be applicable for any purpose of the Company and pending such application may, at the like discretion, be employed in the business of the Company.

115. No dividend or distribution shall be payable except out of the profits of the Company, realized or unrealized or out of the share premium account or as otherwise permitted by the Statute.

116. The Directors may deduct from any dividend or distribution payable to any Member all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company for any reason.

117. The Directors may declare that any dividend or distribution be paid wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of any other company or in any one or more of such ways and where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all Members and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Directors.

118. Any dividend, interest or other monies payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by check or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the holder who is first named on the register of Members or to such person and to such address as such holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Every such check or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent. Any one of two or more joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends, bonuses, or other monies payable in respect of the share held by them as joint holders.

119. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.

REPURCHASE

120. Subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Company may purchase its own Shares (including any redeemable Shares).

In such manner as is referred to in Section 37(3)(d) of the Statute or any modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force, this Article authorises the purchase by the Company in accordance with the provisions of the Statute of such of its own Shares (including any redeemable Shares) as the Directors may from time to time determine and agree with the holder or holders of such Shares, in such manner and on such terms as the Directors may from time to time determine and agree, provided that the price at which such purchase is transacted must be equal to the lower of: (i) the original purchase price paid for the shares; or (ii) the fair market value of the shares at the time of the repurchase by the Company, as determined in good faith by the Directors.

The Company may make a payment in respect of the redemption or purchase of its own Shares in any manner permitted by the Statute, including out of capital.

120-1. Subject to the provisions of the Statute, these Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules, the Company may, upon approval by a majority of the Directors at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the total number of the Directors, purchase its own Shares (including any redeemable Shares). In the event that the Company proposes to purchase any Share listed on the TPEX pursuant to this Article, the approval of the Board and the implementation thereof should be reported to the Members at the next general meeting in accordance with the Applicable Public Company Rules. Such reporting obligation shall apply even if the Company does not implement the proposal to purchase its Shares listed on the TPEX for any reason.

120-2 The Directors may, prior to the purchase or redemption of any Share under Article 120-1, determine that such Shares shall be held as Treasury Shares. Subject to the provision of the Statute and these Articles, the Directors may determine to cancel a Treasury Share or transfer a Treasury Share to the employees on such terms as they think proper (including, without limitation, for nil consideration).

120-3 Any proposal to transfer Treasury Shares to any employee of the Company and its Subsidiaries by the Company at a price below the average repurchase price paid by the Company shall be approved by a resolution passed by two-thirds or more of the Members present at the general meeting who represent a majority of the total outstanding Shares at the most recent general meeting. The notice of the general meeting shall specify the following matters, which may not be made by an ad hoc motion:

- (a) the basis and reasonableness of the determined transfer price, discount ratio and calculation;
- (b) the number, purpose and reasonableness of the share transfer;
- (c) conditions for and volume of share to be purchased by relevant employees; and

(d) any effect on the shareholders' rights, including:

(i) the amount which may be recorded as expenses and any dilution on earnings per Share; and

(ii) any financial burden on the Company caused by such transfer of Treasury Shares to relevant employees at a price lower than the average repurchase price paid by the Company.

The aggregate number of Treasury Shares that may be transferred to relevant employees as approved by the Members at various general meetings shall not exceed five (5) percent of the total outstanding Shares, and the aggregate number of Treasury Shares that may be purchased by each employee shall not exceed 0.5 percent of the total outstanding Shares. The Company may impose restrictions on the transfer of such Shares by the employees for a period of no more than two (2) years.

120-4. The Company may repurchase the Restricted Shares issued to the employees if the vesting conditions are not met pursuant to the plan of Restricted Shares.

CAPITALIZATION

121. Subject to the Statute, the Board may, with the authority of a Supermajority Resolution, at any time capitalize any sum standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts (including statutory reserve, Capital Reserve, and capital redemption reserve fund) or any sum standing to the credit or profit and loan amount or otherwise available for distribution and to appropriate such sum to Members in the proportions in which such sum would have been divisible amongst them had the same been a distribution of profits by way of dividend and to apply such sum on their behalf in paying up in full unissued shares (not being redeemable shares) for allotment and distribution credited as fully paid up to and amongst them in the proportion aforesaid. In such event the Directors shall do all acts and things required to give effect to such capitalization, with full power to the Directors to make such provisions as they think fit for the case of shares becoming distributable in fractions (including provisions whereby the benefit of fractional entitlements accrue to the Company rather than to the Members concerned). The Directors may authorize any person to enter on behalf of all of the Members interested into an agreement with the Company providing for such capitalization and matters incidental thereto and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members and the Company.

BOOKS OF ACCOUNT

122. The Board shall cause proper books of account to be kept with respect to:

(a) all sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which the receipt or expenditure takes places;

(b) all sales and purchases of goods by the Company; and

(c) the assets and liabilities of the Company.

One of the Audit Committee members shall be appointed as the convener to convene meetings of the Audit Committee from time to time and at least one of Audit Committee members shall have accounting or financial expertise to the extent required by the Applicable Public Company Rules. A valid resolution of the Audit Committee requires the consent of one-half or more of all its members. Except for otherwise provided for in the Statute to the contrary, the rules and procedures of meeting of the Audit Committee shall be in accordance with these Articles and the Applicable Public Company Rules.

124. Any of the following matters of the Company shall require the consent of one-half or more of all Audit Committee members and be submitted to the Board for resolution:

- (a) adoption of or amendment to an internal control system;
- (b) assessment of the effectiveness of the internal control system;
- (c) adoption of or amendment to the handling procedures for financial or operational actions of material significance, such as acquisition or disposal of assets, derivatives trading, extension of monetary loans to others, or endorsements or guarantees for others;

With the exception of item (j), any other matters above that has not been approved with the consent of one-half or more of all Audit Committee members may be undertaken upon the consent of two-thirds or more of the members of the Board, and the resolution of the Audit Committee shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board meeting.

124-1 Before any meeting of the Board where a resolution of merger/consolidation and acquisition is put to the vote, the Audit Committee shall review the fairness and reasonableness of the plan and transaction of such merger/consolidation or acquisition, and then report the resolution of its review to the Board and, if the resolution of Members is required under the Statute and/or any other Cayman Islands laws, to the general meeting. The Audit Committee shall engage the independent expert and get the opinion from the independent expert on the fairness of the share exchange ratio and/or the amount of the cash and/or other assets to be distributed to the Members. The Audit Committee's resolution and the independent expert's fairness opinion shall be sent to the Members together with the notice of general meeting, or, if the resolution of the Members is not required under the Cayman Islands laws, shall be reported to the Members in the next following general meeting. If the Company posts the Audit Committee's resolution and the independent expert's fairness opinion on the website designated by FSC and make the resolution and fairness opinion available to the Members at the venue of the general meeting, those documents shall be deemed as having been sent to the Members.

NOTICES

125. Notices shall be in writing and may be given by the Company to any Member either personally or by sending it by post, cable, telex, telecopy or electronic mail to him or to his address as shown in the register of Members or such other address given for such purpose.

126. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, pre-paying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected at the expiration of sixty (60) hours after the letter containing the same is posted as aforesaid. 127. A notice may be given by the Company to the joint holders of record of a share by giving the notice to the joint holder first named on the register of Members in respect of the share.

128. A notice may be given by the Company to the person or persons which the Company has been advised are entitled to a share or shares in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member by sending it through the post as aforesaid in a pre-paid letter addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt, or by any like description at the address supplied for that purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or at the option of the Company by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.

129. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner hereinbefore authorized to:

(a) every person shown as a Member in the Register of Members as of the record date for such meeting except that in the case of joint holders the notice shall be sufficient if given to the joint holder first named in the register of Members; and

(b) every person upon whom the ownership of a share devolves by reason of his being a legal personal representative or a trustee in bankruptcy of a Member of record where the Member of record but for his death or bankruptcy would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting.

WINDING UP

130. If the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution amongst the Members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid-up capital, such assets shall be distributed so that, as nearly as may be, the losses shall be borne by the Members in proportion to the capital paid up, or which ought to have been paid up, at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. And if in a winding up the assets available for distribution amongst the Members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the excess shall be distributed amongst the Members in proportion to the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. This Article is to be without prejudice to the rights of the holders of shares issued upon special terms and conditions.

131. If the Company shall be wound up the liquidator may, subject to the rights attached to any Shares and with the sanction of a Special Resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Statute, divide amongst the Members in proportion to the number of the Shares held by them in kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether such assets shall consist of property of the same kind or not) and may for that purpose value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the Members or different classes of Members. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the Members as the liquidator, with the like sanction, shall think fit, but so that no Member shall be compelled to accept any asset upon which there is a liability.

INDEMNITY

132. Every Director and officer of the Company, together with every former Director and former officer of the Company (each an “Indemnified Person”) shall be indemnified to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws and held harmless by the Company against all claims, actions, proceedings, costs, charges, expenses (including but not limited to legal expense), losses, damages, or liabilities incurred or sustained by such Indemnified Person, whatsoever which they or any of them may incur as a result of any act or omission to act in carrying out their function except to the extent that such claims, actions, proceedings, costs, charges, expenses (including but not limited to legal expense), losses, damages, or liabilities are found in a judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction that is final and non-appealable to have resulted from such Indemnified Person’s own willful default or actual fraud. The Company is allowed to enter into indemnification contract or contract of similar nature with the aforementioned Indemnified Person and to purchase and to maintain insurance for the benefit of such Indemnified Person against any liability which, by virtue of any rule of law, would otherwise attach to such Indemnified Person in respect to of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which such Indemnified Person may be guilty in relation to the Company. Notwithstanding anything provided herein, no such Indemnified Person shall be answerable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other Indemnified Person or for joining in any receipt for the sake of conformity or for the solvency or honesty of any banker or other persons with whom any monies or effects belonging to the Company may be lodged or deposited for safe custody or for any insufficiency of any security upon which any monies of the Company may be invested or for any other loss or damage due to any such cause as aforesaid or which may happen in or about the execution of his office except the same shall happen through the willful default or actual fraud of such Indemnified Person.

133. Unless the Directors otherwise prescribe, the financial year of the Company shall end on December 31 in each year.

AMENDMENTS OF ARTICLES

134. Subject to the Statute, the Company may at any time and from time to time by Special Resolution alter or amend these Articles in whole or in part.

TRANSFER BY WAY OF CONTINUATION

135. If the Company is exempted as defined in the Statute, it shall, subject to the provisions of the Statute and with the approval of a Special Resolution, have the power to register by way of continuation as a body corporate under the laws of any jurisdiction outside the Cayman Islands and to be deregistered in the Cayman Islands.
